Re: Giuffre v. Maxwell,
Case No.: 15-cv-07433-RWS

Dear Judge Sweet:

As a follow up to the March 9, 2017 hearing, we submit this letter motion requesting an endorsed order for relief granted by the Court on 3/9/17 (granting Plaintiff's ore tenus application to redact the non-party's name from the record). See Hr'g Tr. at p. 8.

Accordingly, Ms. Giuffre respectfully requests that the Court endorse this letter request so that we may provide the Clerk with the Court's permission to strike DE 700 from the docket and replace it with redacted/re-filed DE 707. No other changes were made to Plaintiff's Reply/Combined Opposition; therefore, the redaction of non-party's name on page 1 does not affect the Plaintiff's original un-redacted reply or supporting declaration submitted to the Court. Accordingly, Plaintiff's re-filed DE 707 shall be considered timely filed and linked to DE 640 and 655.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Meredith Schultz
